

The Rock

by Franklyn Schaefer, 2020

Key of E

 C#m6 A6
In our saddest, darkest moments
 C#m6 A6
When our life has gone astray;
 C#m6 A6
When we cry to you, all broken,
 E6 B6
And you seem galaxies away.

Chorus:

 E6
You're in the mystery of the sunrise;
 B6
You're in the thunder clouds above.
 C#m6
You're the healing touch of mercy;
 A6
You're the embrace of heaven's love.
 E6
You're in the beggar at the market
 B6
You're in every helping hand.
 C#m6
You 're the gentle wind behind us
 A6 C#m6 B6
You're the Rock, the Rock on which we stand

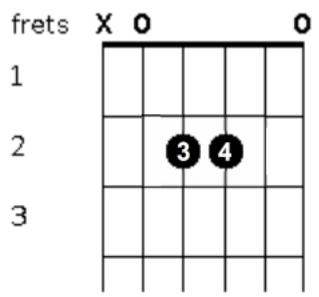

Verse 2:

 C#m6 A6
In the most dreary, hopeless places
 C#m6 A6
The deepest valleys we might walk
 C#m6 A6
Your light will always pierce the darkness
 E6 B6
There's no place where you are not!

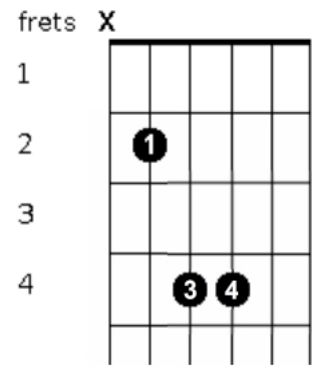

Bridge:

D6 A6
No matter what I face, you're with me in this place
C6 B6
And when I stumble, then, you raise me up again.
D6 A6
As I step out in faith, you help me find my way
C6 B6
And as I make my stand, you hold me in your hand.
